

3 John 1-4

v. 1 Who were the elder, and Gaius?

v. 2 What was John's prayer for Gaius?

v. 3-4 How did John know that Gaius' soul prospered?

v. 3-4 Why was John full of joy?

3 John Outlines

- I. The Commendation Regarding Christian Hospitality (1-8)
- II. The Condemnation Regarding Violating Christian Hospitality (9-11)
- III. The Conclusion Regarding Christian Hospitality (12-15)

- I. Salutation and Prayer (1-2)
- II. The Character of Gaius (3-8)
- III. The Character of Diotrephes (9-11)
- IV. The Character of Demetrius (12)
- V. Conclusion and Salutation (13-15)

- 1. The Introduction (1)
- 2. Reassurance for Gaius (2-8)
- 3. Repudiation of Diotrephes (9-11)
- 4. Recommendation of Demetrius (12)
- 5. Conclusion (13-15)

- I. The Perseverance of Gaius the Exhorter (1-8; 13-14)
 - A. John's prayer for Gaius (1-2): That his physical body will be as healthy as his soul is
 - B. John's praise of Gaius (3-8)
 - 1. He has been faithful to God's message (3-4)
 - 2. He has been faithful to God's messengers (5-8)
 - C. John's plans concerning Gaius (13-14): He will visit him in the near future
- II. The Pride of Diotrephes the Egotist (9-11)
 - A. The evil (9-10): John indicts this church member on six counts.
 - 1. His demand to occupy the leading place (9a)
 - 2. His refusal to receive John himself (9b)
 - 3. His slander of the other apostles (10a)
 - 4. His unwillingness to entertain missionaries (10b)
 - 5. His attempts to excommunicate other believers (10c)
 - 6. His utterly wicked character (10d)
 - B. The exhortation (11): "Don't let this bad example influence you."
- III. The Personal Testimony of Demetrius the Example (12)
 - A. His associates hold him in highest esteem (12a)
 - B. The apostle holds him in highest esteem (12b)
- IV. John's Benediction (15): "May God's peace be with you."