

Hebrews 7:18–19

an annulling
former commandment
weakness
unprofitableness
the law
made nothing perfect

the bringing in a better hope
we draw near to God

Hebrews 7:18–20

¹⁸ For on the one hand there is an annulling of the former commandment because of its weakness and unprofitableness, ¹⁹ for the law made nothing perfect; on the other hand, there is the bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God.

Hebrews 10:19–23

Hebrews 7:20–22

they have become priests
without an oath

He was not made priest
without an oath

Jesus has become a surety
of a better covenant

Hebrews 7:20–22

²⁰ And inasmuch as He was not made priest without an oath ²¹ (for they have become priests without an oath, but He with an oath by Him who said to Him: "The LORD has sworn and will not relent, 'You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek'"), ²² by so much more Jesus has become a surety of a better covenant.

Exodus 24:3–8

Hebrews 7:23–25

many priests

prevented by death from continuing

He

continues forever
unchangeable priesthood
He is also able to save He always lives to make intercession for them

Hebrews 7:23–25

²³ Also there were many priests, because they were prevented by death from continuing. ²⁴ But He, because He continues forever, has an unchangeable priesthood. ²⁵ Therefore He is also able to save to the uttermost those who come to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them.
